News, Assorted
Tickers Cease
Money and Gold
He Was Bone Dry

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

It's news.
In honor of Good Friday the case from troubling Wall is closed until next week.

Before Thursday's close a merger of New York Chemical Bank and the Metropolitan & Trust Co. was announced. Four hundred million dollars in the combination was a $12,- 000,000 melon for stock owners.

German stocks have a boom. Reduces a reason of the Davies will benefit all Germans.

BALTIMORE increases gold reserves.
And Davies has an amount of gold that beats all records.

Flame speculators borrow at 1 percent, in Britain at five.

In prosperous America men borrow at 10, 15 and 20 per cent.

They have no federal reserve bank nor do they have supervisor intended to stimulate loans, not with the public.

A congressman named Glass wants to investigate the City National bank, whose president, C. E. Mitchell, tried to avert a panic, as the original J. P. Morgan did occasionally.

The crusading congressmen probably make a point would help.

A CONGRESSMAN of Chicago was relected last fall, as bone dry, for liquor smuggling, his bill paid two years since $5,000.

Men in this life play many parts, as a bone dry candidate, on election day, smuggling liquor between elections would shock the country's moral if it were not shocked into in-ertility already.

The congressman, M. A. Michaelson, for whom a warrant is issued, showing indictment, has always been apprehended by the Illinois Anti-Saloon League.

Prohibition comes to be a joke if an artist a bone dry congressman and because his voice leads on the telephones, Fla., station platform—what happened to Mr. Michaelson is nowward bound from Cuba.

He voted for the Jones law—$10,- 000 fine, five years in jail, for carrying liquor.

BALTIMORE election coming in May worries Tories and British visitors. Five hundred thousand men of work drawing the 'dole' to help them from starving represent one country.

The "flapper vote," which means young girls of 21, voting for the first time represents another uncertainty.

Lord George promises to put the 700,000 idle to work, changing them from paupers on the dole to wage earners—he plans a road building program and other public works.

This answers the prosperous. They have new taxes to pay wages to the employed.

WOMEN, according to careful statistics, control 41 per cent. of the country's wealth.

Thirty thousand years ago, the world was ruled by a matriarchy—the mothers; children took the mothers' name; women ruled.

A statistician predicts a financial matriarchy by the year 2025, with all wealth in women's bands. Men will endeavor to prevent that. Many of them consider it almost a virtue to relieve women of money.

GEORGIA believes that no man should interfere with another's wife. W. Lawrence Shipley, young warehouse clerk, married a pretty girl.

Hill Davis, churchman, philanthropist notices Mrs. Shipley, Shipley and Davis, and told the jury his car had been wrecked.

The jury said "Not guilty." The churchman carried Shipley on his shoulders.

YOU hear of wonderful things done by General Motors, General Electric, Anaconda Copper, Telephone & Telegraph. It is pleasing to know that capital cities, as well as great industrial units within them, are prosperous.

Virginia, for instance, according to the State Chamber of Commerce, has doubled its wealth in fifteen years, making enormous strides in all directions. Bank deposits increased from $25,000,000 in fifteen years to $60,- 000,000, in 1925 the value of Virginia's products rose from $201,000,- 000 to $53,000,000 in fourteen years.
The story of Virginia is the story of every other state in the Union.

Local Transfer Companies Prepare for Rush As Moving Season Nears

APRIL still has the distinction of being the most popular month for moving, according to two of Marion's largest transfer companies, whose managers anticipate that between 10 and 15 families will be moved daily throughout the month. This includes local moving, and families going in and out of Marion.

Each transfer company is now working at capacity, and have ordered several days ahead for families planning to change residences. Twenty trucks owned by these two transfer companies will be busy all month transferring household goods in addition to their regular freight hauls.

Problems for Movers

Both George A. Wright, of the Paddock Transfer Co., and J. W. Peoples, of the Merchant Transfer Co., agree that there are many attempted "traps" in the transfer business. Some families endeavor to show sufficient damage done to furniture in transit or loading to cover the cost of moving. Most of these, the local movers say, are families to whom credit is extended, and who come into the office after attempt is made to collect the bill for transfer. Heads of the transfer companies say that very few complaints are made when the bill is settled at the time the transfer is completed, and add that settlements are promptly made if actual damage can be shown.

Transfer companies are now required to insure their cargoes and are governed by rates set by the Public Utilities Commission, in contrast to 20 years ago when several hours lag-

His Broken Body

A SERMONETTE

BY THE REV. LAWRENCE A. WOOD Pastor, Trinity Baptist Church

BROKEN FOR ME These words were heard from the lips of a man who was passing through one of the front trenches of the World War. The man had seen the blood flowing from the brow of a dead American soldier boy. He knew the boy had died for him. "Broken for me." Our thoughts turn reverently three Pre-Easter days to the Divine One who was broken for us.

Into this world distract and blighted by sin He came, the Son of God, and was broken for us. We can comprehend only in part the meaning of the incarnation. But we know that it was the expression of eternal love. God in the second person of the Trinity clothed Himself with humanity and dwelt among men. Christ was truly human and truly divine. In His death and resurrection He was broken for us.

If He had not died that sacrificial death, we could not approach unto God. We worship Him and we receive His forgiveness of our sins because Jesus Christ died as our substitute. His broken body was for us. These days before the Resurrection Sunday we pause in reverent worship. We are filled with awe at the thought of the eternal God a sacrifice for our sins. This is the meaning of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The contest has brought in over 50 new members, many of whom never attended the class before.

It's all right to guard your field of usefulness, but it isn't necessary to put a barbed wire fence around it.

Death of Bible Bill And Appropriation Measure Passage Feature of Week

Fate of Proposal To Boost Gasoline Tax to Four Cents Per Gallon Apparently Up to Governor Cooper, House Has Already Given Approval

COLUMBUS, March 28.—The death of the Weaver bill, which would have increased the gasoline tax to four cents per gallon, has been delayed until the end of the session, probably April 1, according to the Senate. The bill, introduced by Senator Frank J. Weaver, of Toledo, would have imposed a tax of $11,000 to defray the cost of highway improvements and other state educational operations not up to the mark. It also contained highlights of a bill introduced earlier this week, the fate of the proposal to increase the state gasoline tax to four cents per gallon, which is expected to be decided April 1, at a conference at the governor's office. The Indiana Conference will be in session to increase the state gasoline tax to four cents per gallon and the Crockett bill providing for a state rural highway police force.

The house agricultural committee urged adoption of the Shepherd joint resolution memorializing Congress to enact a truth in fabrics bill, while the house buildings committee favored the Bender joint resolution, which has been adopted by the senate, providing for acquisition by the state of the Thomas A. Edison homestead at Milan, Ohio. The house finance committee recommended adoption of the Buxton joint resolution proposing a joint committee to investigate criminal syndicates and submission by that committee of a proposed new criminal code for Ohio.

Would Abolish Department

While house members are dubious of either a adjournment or recessing at the close of the current session, senators indicate they may insist upon remaining in session at least until April 11 or 12. A number of the members of the senate finance committee stated last night upon that committee giving consideration to the Wendt appropriation bill during the coming week before permitting that measure to come up for passage in the senate.

The senate this week passed an amendment to the house's Lammont bill which would abolish the state fish and game division and create a division of conservation. The house concurred in the action of the senate in passing the Gillen bill recodifying Ohio's code of criminal procedure and adopting the Vigor joint resolution providing for display of the American flag on Mother's Day Sunday, May 12.

Rogoffin Election Laws

The senate also passed and sent to the house the Herbert Martin bill revising and recodifying the state election laws. The house passed and message to the senate the Norton bill amending the Norton highway code and repealing the statute which authorizes the laying of special assessments against abutting property owners for certain highway improvements.

A complaint was made by Patrolman Fred D. Hendren who returns to duty next week after a twenty day suspension for attempting to obtain leniency for a bootlegger stool pigeon. His complaint was filed against Nicholas that he sold confiscated guns through a Niles firearms dealer that he illegally signed warrants and that he failed to order arrests after certain liquor raids.

PUBLISH PAPER

First Issue of Girl Scouts Publicity Makes Appearance

The first issue of The Cardinals Trill, published by and for the Girl Scouts of Troop No. 3 was released today. The Trill is printed in multigraph on a sheet of paper about $10 inches and contains news of the troop, jokes on members, reminders of coming meetings and observations in general on the scouts of troop 3. Miss Helen Dorsey is captain of the troop. The paper is released by editors signing themselves Sibby and Sary. In order to carry out the project it was necessary for the girls to borrow the multigraph belonging to the Boy Scout offices.

Daily Proverb—"Courtesy that is all on one side can not last long."

A Chicagoan who accosted a girl offensively on a Kansas City street was marched to the police station with a long and pointed baton touching his backbone. He happened to accost a girl from Alton, Missouri.

Of course, it is understood 101 arrests in the latest dry crusade to clean up that city doesn't mean that Steubenville is exceptionally given to witness, but merely that the enforcement officers have been exceptionally vigilant and persistent down there.

Governor Long, of Louisiana, charges that the Standard Oil company is behind the movement to impeach him because of his proposed oil tax. Even if it is nothing more than talk on the part of the governor, it's hard to see how the younger Mr. Rockefeller can forego looking into charges against the Standard's business ethics.

Congressman La Guardia, of New York, being the only one of the fifteen legislators back from Panama to admit that he brought liquor with him, will just naturally have to take it that, by inference at least, the rest of them have been terribly maligned.

The National Trust for Places of Historic Interest, of Great Britain, has raised the necessary $42,500 to keep sacred the surroundings of Stonehenge, 650 acres about the fabled stones being purchased. Even at that, were Stonehenge over here, it probably wouldn't be six months till there was a fence of gas stations about it.

The only man arrested in the Rothstein murder matter is now out under bond. Come to think of it, Police Commissioner Whalen's activity in the case for the solution of which he was selected hasn't been exactly what one would term matchless.

The Chicago Tribune editorially claims that when each of the three colored boxers on the Chicago team showed that he had a chance of winning in the recent "Golden Gloves" contest in New York City he was hit over the head with a lead pipe. We imagined that that kind of fighting and able like that were the smallest of small town stuff.

Minnesota is planning to repeal all her blue laws, not, as we understand it, because anybody up there makes any effort to observe them, but simply because the citizenship of the state wants to think of itself as law-abiding. Hence the plan to make the law conform to practice.

The Illinois congressman indicted in Jacksonville, Florida, for violating the liquor law isn't entitled to any sympathy whatever.
If he simply had to violate the law, he should have remained at home in Chicago, where a thing like that is looked upon as evidence of good citizenship.

For Permanent Registration.

There is much to be said for the Herbert-Martin bill looking to the reconditioning of the election laws of the state which passed the senate, this week, by a unanimous vote of the twenty-nine members answering to the roll call.

Among other matters the bill provides for a change making the time of holding state and presidential primaries the same in presidential campaign years; makes permissible the use of voting machines, simplifies the method of making nominations and gives the secretary of state and the election board broader powers in dealing with election frauds.

But the chief merit of the proposed measure and the one which should be enacted into law even though all other provisions in it fail as the result of amendatory action is the provision looking to permanent registration in all cities of 16,000 and over and in lesser centers of population which may desire it. This provision empowers correction of the registration every four years, by additions of the names of new voters and the elimination of those who departed from the voting division as the result of death, change of residence or other cause. Save for such amendments, if we may call them that, the registration would stand.

And why not? Why should the voters of a precinct be required to register every four years? Why should voters who have cast their ballots in the same precinct, year after year, be required to qualify for the ballot quadrennially? Why should this needless trouble be forced upon them? Why should there be such utterly needless expense?

We do not pretend to say to what extent the enactment of the bill into law will eliminate such election frauds as have recently disgraced the state. If it will to any extent, well and good. But we do feel free to state that the permanency of registration which it would effect should commend it to all the voters of Ohio.

Transcontinental Air Service.

From Washington comes the announcement that the air mail service between the Atlantic and the Pacific will be doubled within the next thirty days by cutting twelve hours from the present time schedule and making possible the delivery of mail on the Pacific coast the second morning out from New York.

The cut in time is to be made possible by the inauguration of a new night service over the entire 2,731 miles of airways connecting New York with San Francisco and Los Angeles, which will eliminate the present overnight layovers of incoming mail at both ends of the transcontinental route, and the speeding up of mail deliveries at each terminal.

At present there is a double service in operation between New York and Lincoln, Nebraska. The extension of the service to the Pacific coast will be made possible by the completion of the new lighted airway over the western mountain section of the across-the-continent route between Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

Under schedules soon to be put into effect mail deposited in New York as late as 7 o'clock in the evening will be scheduled to arrive in San Francisco or Los Angeles at 4:30 o'clock and 5 o'clock the second morning in time for the regular delivery. The same schedules will apply to eastbound mail.
New York mail now reaches the Pacific coast the second night, but is not delivered until the third morning, unless special delivery service is paid for.

The new service, according to the postoffice department's announcement, is not to be merely supplementary to the day service, but is to be, in fact, the main service, carrying the greater volume of air mail between the two coasts. The department's announcement carries the further information that the new service will bring points as far west as North Platte, Nebraska, within one day's delivery time of New York. Mail for Cheyenne, Wyoming, leaving New York Monday night, will reach that point before dark the following day and will be subject to special delivery that evening. Mail from San Francisco will arrive in Chicago by 6 p.m., or in St. Louis by 4:30 p.m., for special delivery that evening.

IT TAKES TWO TO MAKE A BOOTLEGGER.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTYRE.

New York, March 29.—There is no place like Broadway for picking fortunes—and that's just what they do in this art. Callings not rating three square meals a day at the cost order restaurants back home produce cigar rollers among boys and girls, who in fact verminous, work the main stem."

It is an old story how the Susskind brothers, three alert Jewish boys, conceived the idea of taking over hat-checking privileges in rates, hotels and theaters and thereby gained a monopoly that made them millionaires. Texas Guinan got hers "Hello 25 night club suckers."

Harry Richman, a second rate piano player with lacerated hair and a limp, is in the big money because of defects in making eyes at ladies while caroling sentimental ditties.

Sophie Tucker can retire after fifteen years of "hot mama" songs in a coarse masculine voice. Helen Kane "boob-boop-a-dooped" to chorus girls.

Lou Holtz, a quondam comedian, dabbled in real estate as a side venture, and owns a string of apartment houses and works on the stage when he feels like it. Sidewalk ticket speculator millionaires are numerous, and Joe Lehman's enormous realty holdings are from profits of cut-rate theater tickets.

The chain soft drink parlor magnates springing up since rivalry rife the boys on the right side of General Motors. Three men are millionaires from incomes from racing form sheets. An itinerant jewelry salesman is wealthy selling installment plan baubles to chorus girls.

Frank V. Storts, Social Registerite, with a box at the opera, began his fortune furnishing programs free to theaters and collecting on the advertising end. A former stableman has grown prosperous searching for pedigree dogs abroad for the rich. And, of course, there is Miss Peggy Joyce.

There may be a more amusing want ad.
than that of the young man seeking a position who naively states "at present employed at city hall, but will work if I have to," but this want ad, reading house has never seen it.

The gambling house—such as Caulfield's—has long ago vanished. The new type is conducted by gamblers with portable apparatus carried in a suit case. In this way they move from hotel to hotel and foil raiders. At sundown the cryer for the game drops around to various haunts of gamblers and tips them off to the rendezvous for the night. Only those known to be "right" receive the information, and rarely is there raid.

The longest session at poker recorded this winter took place at a midtown hotel. It began Sunday evening before midnight and lasted until Wednesday noon. The players only dropped out for eat naps, and not one left the table. It brought on a spell of yawning just bearing about it.

One of the sinister and persistent rumors from the underworld concerns a hotel on the fringe of the Tenderloin that is the reputed "depot" for upper world drug traffic. There is the story of an innocent Middle Western lady stopping at the hotel. Her phone rang.
A feminine voice said: "Have you got the stuff?" This is Alice in Room 407." The lady did not know what it was all about and said so.
An hour later a knock at her door revealed a white-faced girl who quickly stepped inside flourishing a revolver. "Listen," she said, "I called the room room.
Forget what I said to you. Remember Doctor King was bumped off for blabbing." She vanished. And the lady took the next train for back yonder where people are a little shadown may fall upon the earth, or earth's shadow upon her.

There is a new moon and a full moon every month, but most of them occur in the moon is more or less distant from nodes.
But all the full moons that occur winter are relatively high in the sky our hemisphere—and the new moons relatively low. The case is just the opposite with the summer full moons, which run in the sky, while the new moons run in the principal reason for this is not the elevation of the moon's orbit—but although it has an influence, sometimes decreasing the elevation of moon in the sky—but it is the inclination of the earth's axis of rotation, which is directed in space that causes the new moon to run in the sky, while the full moon runs in the sun and vice versa. But when the moon is directly opposite the sun, a high sun implies a low full moon in conjunction with the sun, so that new moons run high or low in accord-with the sun.—Copyright, 1929, International Feature Service, Inc. the sultan of Turkey. If he had been survived, the prince might now be on the throne. Instead, he has been living for a job in the orchestra in a restaurant in Budapest, Hungary. Well, well, the big business in Europe isn't so good as it was. Most of the kings on the checker board of the world have been taken out of it.

Those who are left listen to the people as watchers at the polls.

There is no such thing as putting a price on anything and being sure that it is accurate. You may want a thing as your price is absurdly high, judge it; somebody else's desire, or perhaps you will pay $19 for what somebody else gladly pay a thousand.

Did you know that the cast of discover the New World by Christopher Columbus was $6,000? Columbus got a salary of $1 a year. Sailors got two dollars a month.
The ships were fitted up for $2,500. Fr cost a dollar a head a month.

It alongside the $6,000 that Columbus spent.
Who shall say what anything is worth never can tell.

Says a wise lawyer, George Wickerbar

"We used to think that war was the spirit of kings. It's in great danger of becoming the toy of democracies."

Talkers and writers have long been challenging war upon diplomats and rulers who around a table and move men like chess But let's watch out. The passions of a democracy may run as wild or wilder than a monarchy. Rulers and diplomats move more slowly than the people themselves.
The flame of a certain kind of mis-patriotism may run across a nation like a prairie fire.

All well-wishers of the republic will be that President Hoover's fact finding commission will do more than look into the man of law enforcement. The people are ready for an examination of the whole matter.

There are no phases of it subject which a committee on inquiry properly leave out.

The Frisky Moon.

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS.

Professor Young used to say that, as usually, the moon ranked highest among the heavenly bodies.

The moon's orbit itself "regresses," i.e., swings around backward with reference to the direction of her motion around the earth making a complete turn in about three years.
In consequence, the places where it crosses the plane of the earth's orbit are continually changing. These places are called "nodes."

Where the moon cuts across the earth's orbit is the descending "node" and opposite, where she cuts across going north is the "ascending node." She crosses a node once in each month's revolution. eclipses necessarily occurs when the moon is not far from one or the other of nodes, for then only can she be in line with the sun and the earth, so that either shadow may fall upon the earth, or earth's shadow upon the moon.

HARDIN COUNTY WOMEN INJURED

Sustain Cuts and Bruises When Pinned Beneath Machine and Auto

KENTON, March 30—Two women are in McKirick hospital here suffering from burns sustained in an unusual accident two miles west of Kenton yesterday. They are Mrs. Kate Ford of this city, suffering from a fractured upper jaw, broken cuts and bruises, and Mrs. Scott Martin, Kenton, cut and bruised about the head.

The two women were standing beside an automobile parked in a farm lane watching a group of men loose a mired truck when the mishap occurred.

While their attention was engaged, a team of horses hitched to a wagon standing to the rear of the parked car, started to walk off, the heavy wagon bed pinning the women against the side of the automobile. Their screams attracted the attention of the workmen who stopped the horses.

Two youths, injured while at play, were reported today as recovering in their homes here. One, Vernon Friedman, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Friedman, sustained a compound fracture of the right arm when a string on his roller skates loosened throwing him against the curbing. The second lad, Ralph Garner, 12, son of Mr. J. B. Ellis, Mrs. F. H. Chase and Mrs. Paul B. Maxwell favored the organization with 100 votes. Fifty members of the organization attended the services. At the regular collection the society received about $15.

Condition of Foster Resch, 17, Senior in Kenton high school who was injured when struck by heavy discs while witnessing the Kenton Bellevue field meet, was reported as but slightly improved at Antioch hospital. His arm was fractured, several teeth knocked out and his cheek deeply cut.

REALTY INVENTORY TO BE STATEWIDE

Vacancies and Construction Projects Scheduled for Listing After June 1

COLUMBUS March 30—Contrary to custom followed by most business men, of taking an inventory around the first of the year, the real estate boards of the state have decided that from June 1 to July 15 is the most logical time for taking an inventory of real estate vacancies and construction according to W. W. Wheaton chairman of the market survey committee of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards.

A statewide movement has been launched by the Ohio Association of Real Estate boards to get local real estate boards to make uniform vacancy surveys between the dates of June 1 and July 15 and report the summarized data to the state association which will make possible the compilation of statistics on a statewide basis.

President Don O. Boyd Dayton appointed a special committee composed of W. W. Wheaton Columbus Claude Traylor Akron C. S. Mc Clellan Dayton Butch A. Waller Union J. C. Price Toledo A. B. Hebert Springfield and Fred H. Eichard Classification.

Mr. Jones This committee has made a special study of wanted and vacancy surveys and forwarded recommendations to every real estate board in the state.

In making a survey the committee recommends that real estate be classified into at least the following units: singles, duplexes, apartments and storerooms, and that no actual count should be made of the existing units in each class which make the facts absolutely accurate. The more determining of the number of vacancies is of very little value the committee points out unless the actual number of units in the city is known. The Toledo Real Estate Board is the only one in the state that has made an actual count of living units and store rooms.

"Get the Facts Before You Build," is warning issued from Dealers of Long Experience to Persons Planning Erection of New Homes.

Get the facts before you build. This is the advice of C. W. Leffler & Son who have devoted their entire time to the problems of materials and construction.

They have furnished the materials for hundreds of houses and buildings which materials give complete satisfaction in use and which do not

Free Service

A free service department is maintained to help home builders so that in after years their homes will be the assets rather than burdens. The use of all the new home building conveniences is advised—such as mail boxes, coal chutes, garbage receivers, package receivers, tile fireplaces, floors and bathrooms, etc. and will gladly be explained in detail.

Display of face brick is made by a new and very interesting method.

Each individual style of brick is shown laid in appropriate mortar, emersed in oak panels and of a wall area sufficient to present easy visualization of an entire building.

To Avoid Mistakes

As the selection of the material to be used in the foundation and walls of the house is probably the most important decision the home owner is required to make no better method of avoiding the mistakes so frequently made by those building a home for the first time can be found than a consultation with C. W. Leffler & Son covering every phase of home building.

In making a survey the committee recommends that real estate be classified into at least the following units: singles, duplexes, apartments and storerooms, and that no actual count should be made of the existing units in each class which make the facts absolutely accurate. #### Better Built Homes Always an Asset

Better built houses make possible better furnace terms. This is true because—they are a better financial risk, they have a regular market, they demand less upkeep whether due to depreciation or repairs, they command a more liberal first mortgage and that in turn makes it easier to secure a second mortgage if necessary because the second is a better risk and requires no additional payment.

It should also be remembered that a well built house is possible without increased costs because it reduces the great leakage in initial expenditures on money charges and on construction costs. It makes for reduced maintenance charges both in repairs and depreciation, and it makes for reduced heating costs through properly constructed and insulated houses.

A properly constructed house may be well heated at a saving as high as 25 per cent in the cost of fuel. As these expenditures are incurred yearly the total possible savings warrant the most careful consideration.

The selection of the material to be used in the outer walls of the new home has so great a bearing on the soundness of the investment the continued satisfaction with the building the value of the property in the years to come the all important item of upkeep and maintenance and the question of depreciation that the home builder should consider future costs just as fully and carefully as first costs before deciding what type of wall material he will use. If he is guided wholly by first costs the stub born fact remains that there is no way of avoiding the future expense of painting, repainting and insurance.

A careful study of the Builders Supply Dealer's analysis of the relative cost of materials for the walls will show why thinking people now realize a wholly new degree of luxurious home comfort at an added ultimate building cost. Their masonry houses keep snug and warm in the bitterest winter weather, refreshing cool throughout a scorching summer and their children's health is guarded from cold giving drafts and sudden temperature changes.

The owners of masonry houses have broader investments, houses that are stronger, more enduring, worth more money.

MEAT PRICES RISE DURING PAST WEEK

General Increase Features Trend on Local Market

This week saw several price changes in items on Marion produce and meat markets. Meats took a sudden spurt in the middle of the week and are now at higher levels than they have been at any other time this month with no indications of price reductions soon.

Wednesday was the high water line for meat prices of the week when over a half dozen kinds sought high levels. Dried beef which was selling between 65 and 60 cents a pound went up 10 cents. Pork beef registered a fourteen cent gain in landing, at 22 cents. Chuck roast saw a two cent gain from its former 20 cents a pound went from 20 to 22 cents. Spare ribs went from 17 to 20 cents and pork hams jumped from 15 to 17 cents.

Thursday saw small California oranges dropped to 12 cents a dozen but not for long as this fruit soon returned to the former price of 10 cents a dozen.

The week started with a two cent gain on eggs back to 20 cents where they have since remained. Meat was high, but not nearly as high as after Wednesday's gains.

Tuesday saw the appearance of yellow wax string beans at 28 cents a pound and asparagus at 15 cents a bunch on Marion markets. No other new items were introduced and fruit and vegetable prices remained comparatively steady. The wind up of the week saw a gain from 2 to 10 cents in most meat items. Legs were steady at 20 throughout the week.

Never judge a man by the man he sells. He probably doesn't belong to him neither.

Beauty is like a cooling stove—it's good when the fuel gives out.
